

The LPD Intro Books

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE PLACE WHERE LONG TOENAILS ON WOMEN ARE THE BE-ALL AN END-ALL OF PLEASURABLE EXPERIENCES!

Hi, Earth folks, and welcome to LPD. LPD is short for "Longa Piedunga Domo" (pronounced LONE-GAH PEE-ED-OON-GA DOE-MO) which is Esperanto for "Long Toenail House." LPD has a focus on the love and appreciation of long toenails on women. And like many other good inventions, LPD was an accident waiting to happen.

You see, one day back in the early summer of 2000, I was web surfing at a public library when I suddenly had the thought to plug the term "long toenails" into a search engine. Soon thereafter, I discovered a whole universe of long toenail websites to explore. (Everybody, say two thumbs up!!!) After that discovery, I immediately began production on the print version of LPD.

Anyway, LPD can now be defined as a series of digital comics and web sites that focus on the long toenail fetish and certain other fetishes. As you will see in the following pages, LPD has a broad range of fetishes included within its scope.

GIANT WOMAN SOLAR SYSTEM

It's a collection of stories that often feature long-nailed giantesses. Such stories include:

FANTASTIC TOENAIL

VOYAGE: A story where a woman becomes a very reluctant participant in an extremely unorthodox scientific experiment. In this case, a scientist shrinks two of the woman's friends to microscopic size and places the two onto the surface of one of her very long toenails. Samples can be found HERE.

FREEJACK PRESS: A newspaper editor from 1992 is mysteriously zapped 20-years into the future. Soon after that, she is shrunk to a very small size and experiences a giantess attack of her own.

GIANT STEPS AGAINST

CRIME: Two carjacked women use the giantess option when dealing with the crime.

MONTEREY'S GROWTH SPURT:

The story where American scientists and their mutant rat mount an escape from a prison in the Far East island nation of Quanwan. This escape is accomplished when one of the scientists rapidly grows into a 95-meter-tall giantess.

THE LOST REALM OF LPD

(or at least that's what it's called now)

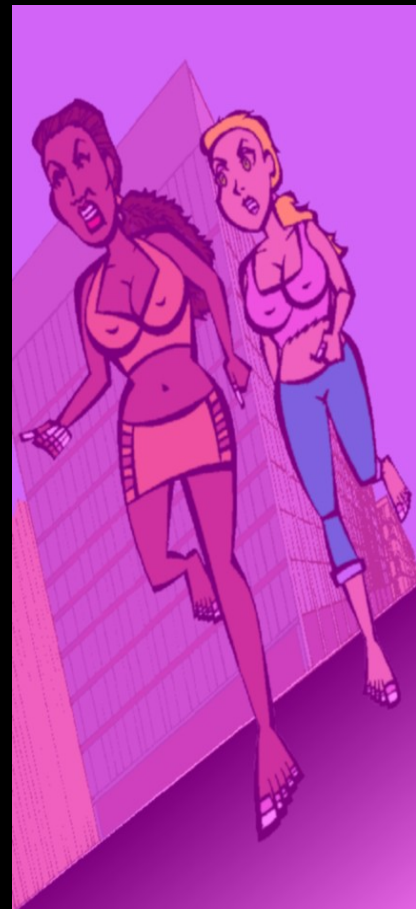

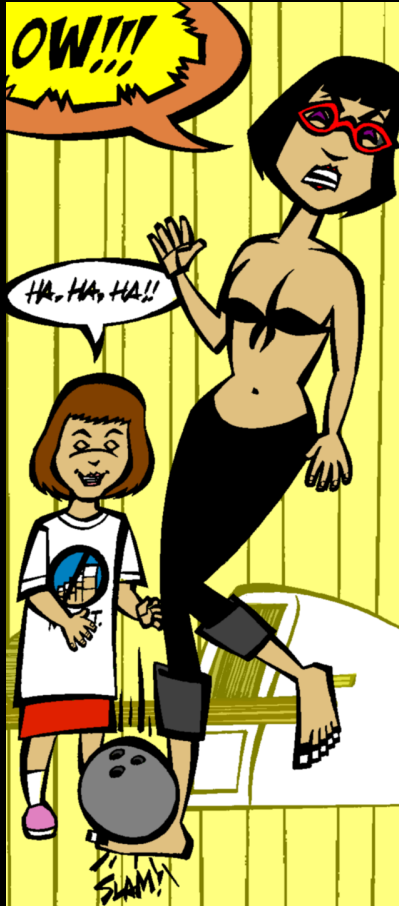

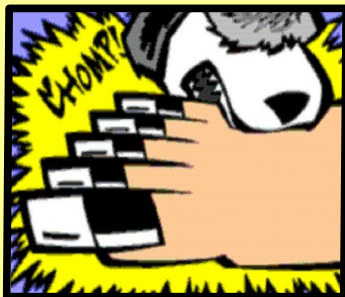

It's the place to find all other aspects of LPD fokelore and what-have you. It includes:

ESPERANTA: A barefoot long-toenailed woman who promotes the metric system and has a habit of getting her bare feet hurt very frequently. Samples can be found HERE.

THE BAREFOOT KITTYLYN: A barefoot short-toenailed woman who has a habit of getting her barefeet hurt very frequently. Samples can be found HERE.

THE LONG TOENAILS OF QUANWANESE WOMEN: The story of life and everything in the Far East island nation of Quanwan -- the place where women have the longest toenails on Earth. This epic also includes the tale of two American long toenail fans who spend a year in this wondrous land of long-toenailed women!

SUSSEX & LANCY: The story of two super-powered women who combine forces to stop irresponsible drivers from wrecking havoc. Though this is a cartoon, the irresponsible driver problem is a seriously REAL problem. I say we need real-life equivelants of Sussex and Lancy now! Samples can be found HERE.

CUSTOM ART

LPD offers CUSTOM fetish art just for YOU! Have your dream digital comic book made to your specifications! And if comics aren't your thing, LPD can offer you certain other fetish art products you might be able to deal with. EMAIL for details on that and related matters..
